

HEADQUARTERS U. S. MARINE CORPS

WASHINGTON

25 December, 1924.

The Editor of The Leatherneck:

It gives me great pleasure to express to every Marine, through your columns, my sincere and hearty wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I hope that the Holiday Season may bring to all joy in a full measure, and that the coming year may be successful and prosperous for one and all.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN A. LEJEUNE,

Major General Commandant.
